CLUBS

Interest of clubs throughout the country centers at present on the fifteenth biennial convention of the general federation which is being held at Des Moines. The convention formally opened on Wednesday and will remain in session until Wednesday evening. At 4 o'clock this afternoon memorial and patriotic services will be held while in the evening a community service conference is planned. Tomorrow morning will be featured by a business session the afternoon being given over to conferences on home economics, industrial and social conditions, public health with brilliant speakers to present ideas which will be discussed in general following the speaking. Monday evening an Americanization program is scheduled. Allen T. Burns, director Carnegie Foundation, Study of Methods for Americanization making an address on "Coercive or Co-operative Americanization." Dr. Walter Albert Jessup of the University of Iowa will lecture on "Americanization in the Public Schools" and there will be motion pictures presented by the Society for Visual Education.

Election of officers will be held on Tuesday, the day being given over to ex-civil service reform conference and conference and conservation and legislation conferences. Tuesday evening is known as "state president's night." Each state president will respond to the questions "What is your state's greatest problem?" and "How is your federation helping in its solution?" A business session Wednesday morning will be followed by a "Made in America" afternoon with a conference held under the auspices of the departments of Home Economics and Civics. An Americanization conference will also be held while president's evening will conclude the session.

The temporary organization of the Arizona Federation of Musical clubs has been arranged under the authority of the National Federation of Musical clubs as follows: Mrs. H. D. Ross, Phoenix, president; Mrs. H. M. Fontenore, Phoenix, corresponding secretary; Mrs. William Goodwin, Tempe, treasurer. These officers will constitute an executive board for the transaction of business until the state is permanently organized. An official call will be issued early in the fall for an organization meeting which will be held in the Woman's club building, in Phoenix at 9:30 a. m. November 8, the Phoenix Musicians' club being the hostess. This call will be sent to all the music clubs now organized, the musical sections of the Woman's clubs, the supervisors of music in public schools, the music teachers, choral societies, musicians and music lovers, in fact, all those interested in the development growth and advancement of musical art in the state. At this meeting a formal adoption of a constitution and by-laws will be made, and officers will be elected for the ensuing term. The national federation in their by-laws provide for the admission of the music sections of the women's clubs if the section is organized with its own chairman and secretary. All of the states admit them to their federation under these conditions, and they then become automatically a part of the National Federation of Musical clubs. The relationship between the State Federation of Women's clubs is kept thereby very close and friendly. The State Federation of Musical clubs will endeavor to carry out the aims outlined by the national federation. The first being to make America the musical center of the world; the second, to make music useful in the civic life of America; and the third, the promotion of American musical art. The national federation has taken for its slogan: "A music club in every city, in every county, in every state in the union, and soldier clubs and junior boys' and girls' clubs—auxiliary." Arizona must not lag behind in this movement to make America musical, and those who have been drafted for this patriotic work do not propose to see the state fall down.

MISS ROSE WEBB

—Photographed by Heath

One of the most interesting visitors this season is Miss Rose Webb, a lovely southern girl who is the guest of Mrs. C. H. Akers. Miss Webb came here from Charleston with view of passing a brief period in Phoenix, but her admirers, and they are legion, will be delighted to learn that she has decided to extend her stay until the first of July. She is exceptionally popular and is always one of the most sought after guests at the many delightful dances at the amusement parks, which form the principal summer diversion. Miss Webb recently motored to Roosevelt with the Bryan Akers and the C. H. Akers. The party returned to the city on Tuesday.

Mrs. F. A. Seiberling, national president, has been putting a great deal of constructive thought and energy into making the national federation a business-like organization, thus refuting the usual charge that a musician lives only in a world of dreams and visions, and possesses no practical ability. She is endeavoring to get all the states to select a uniform time in the year for holding conventions, and has asked that it be the last of March or early in April, thus bringing them at the close of the teaching year when pupils and teachers are full of enthusiasm.

A Corn?

Why, a touch will end it!

A corn today is needless, and millions of people know it.

Years ago nearly every woman had them. Now women who know Blue-jay never suffer corns.

Ask your own friends.

Blue-jay comes in liquid form or plaster. One applies it in a jiffy—by a touch.

The pain stops. In a little time the whole corn loosens and comes out.

The proof is everywhere. Tens of millions of corns have been ended in this simple, easy way.

This is the scientific method—the modern way of dealing with a corn. It was created by this world-famed laboratory, which every physician respects.

One test will solve all your corn problems. Make it tonight. Buy Blue-jay from your druggist.
